

THE CREDITLINE

FEBRUARY 2017

HELP! I Overspent on Christmas!

If you're looking back at the holidays with dread because of the huge bills you racked up, you need to take steps now to fix the problem.

For starters, do some aggressive budgeting to make the biggest payments you can on your credit card debt.

If you really went big and bought something like a car, refinancing might save you money. Check with Weld Schools Credit Union!

Develop a plan for next year; open a WSCU Holiday Account to be proactive! The Holiday Account is an additional savings account earmarked by you to spend on next year's holiday. Start by putting money in the account every month; then next year you can spend the money you have!

Finally, a debt consolidation loan can be a fantastic way to swap out those high-interest credit card payments for a much lower rate. Check with us at WSCU... just call us... really! (970) 330-9728

EAF Deadline Looms

February 15th is the deadline for Jeri Cranwell EAF grant submissions.

The volunteers will meet by the end of the month and we will have the funds dispersed by the first of the following month. The application can be found online at weldschoolscu.com

To date the Education Assistance Fund has given over $109,000.00 back into the Classrooms of Weld County.
